

Seasonal Flu, H1N1, and Pneumococcal Vaccinations Information

Effective 9/1/09, The State of Tennessee will waive the deductible/coinsurance for the PPO & PPO Limited health plans for the Flu, H1N1 & Pneumococcal Vaccines in either a physician office setting or with a certified pharmacist. This waiver applies even if out-of-network providers render these services.

The prescription drugs Tamiflu and Relenza have been moved from the 3rd tier ($75) drug list to the 2nd tier ($25) drug list for both plans. These copayments apply to members enrolled in the PPO plan. Members (Local Government employees) enrolled in the PPO-Limited plan will receive Tamiflu & Relenza at the 2nd tier coinsurance level of 20%.

For additional information about the upcoming Flu Season and H1N1 updates, visit: <http://health.state.tn.us/H1N1.htm>.