

Reminder - Populating secondary diagnoses

All providers of service must report at least one diagnosis code when filing a claim. Multiple diagnosis codes can be reported to accurately describe the reason for the encounter. List the first code for the diagnosis, condition, problem, etc., shown in the medical record to be chiefly responsible for the encounter for the service provided, then list codes that describe co-existing conditions.