55866	37202	BCBST	The edited code is a component of the listed code if used to report minor anesthesia or infusion services provided as part of the listed procedure or according to surgical package instructions. Similar listed codes with edit disallowed according to NCCI Misuse of Column 2 code with Column 1 code policy, which indicates that a provider should not report a CPT code out of the context for which it was intended. Note, however, that it may be appropriate to reimburse this procedure if it is performed for indicated purposes separately from the comprehensive procedure.

Comprehensive Code	Component Code	Source	Rationale
55866	49255	BCBST	This is a separate procedure by definition and when it is performed as a component of a more extensive procedure, it should not be additionally reported. This code should not be used to report incidental omentum resection along with the surgical specimen. Experience has demonstrated that the edited code is often reported inappropriately in circumstances when the procedure was not performed, not medically indicated, or required minimal additional effort.
55866	49320	BCBST	As per CPT guidelines, a surgical laparoscopy always includes a diagnostic laparoscopy. This diagnostic laparoscopy code is not allowed if used to report exploratory or diagnostic laparoscopic services performed in conjunction with the surgical laparoscopy.
55866	49321	BCBST	Edited code not allowed when used to report submission of surgical specimens for pathology or incidental biopsy at the time of the definitive procedure. When an endoscopic or open procedure is performed and a biopsy is also performed, followed by excision, destruction or removal of the biopsied lesion, the biopsy is not separately reported. This code may be appropriate to reimburse if performed with unrelated procedures, and if it involved significant additional work to justify reimbursement.
55866	51701	BCBST	The edited procedure involves only incidental additional work when performed with the listed procedure. Similar listed codes with edit disallowed according to NCCI Standards of medical / surgical practice.
